Easy access to digital terrestrial TV

Digital television is a reality. A whole new variety of content is at your fingertips: entertainment, sports, news, movies, you name it. Everything you see and hear will have amazing digital quality.

And here's the best part. You don't need a new TV set. You don't need a satellite dish – or even a cable connection. The Nokia Mediamaster 150 T is all you need to access high quality digital content.

Switch on. Wherever you are

The beauty of the Nokia Mediamaster 150 T is its ease-of-use. You just plug it into your existing rooftop TV antenna and you can start exploring the new world of digital television. You can even take it with you to bring digital TV to your summer cottage or caravan - the Nokia Mediamaster 150 T is so practical and portable.

Not just quantity, but quality

The Nokia Mediamaster 150 T gives you access to all the available free-to-air digital TV and radio channels.

There's no need to worry about getting mixed up with your channels either: the on-screen Nokia Navi™ Bars user menu makes browsing channels easy - and so fast! You will enjoy a fully automatic channel set-up, you can create personal favourites lists for all the family and there is also a handy electronic programme guide (EPG) at your service.

And then, of course, you benefit from the digital picture (normal ratio or wide-screen – you decide) and Dolby Digital™ supported sound, giving you a whole new standard in TV entertainment.

It's not all about watching TV. Why not listen to digital radio?

With the Nokia Mediamaster 150 T you can receive all the available digital radio channels in your area. Being digital, you get the benefit of high quality digital sound and plugging the Nokia Mediamaster 150 T into your stereo will really enhance your listening experience.

Everything changes so fast. Is this a good time to get digital TV – or the Nokia Mediamaster 150 T? Absolutely. When you see it, you'll believe it. What's more, with the Nokia Mediamaster 150 T you're covered for the future too, as you get updates when new functions and services become available. The same goes for all Nokia home entertainment products and solutions, guaranteed.

Your dealer will happy to give you more information about digital television, as well as the Nokia Mediamaster 150 T and our other exciting digital home entertainment products.
