NOKIA ONE, MOBILE CONNECTIVITY SERVICE is an effective means of connecting your employees to desktop corporate information such as e-mail, calendars and employee directories, while they are in and out of the office.

Nokia One is convenient, flexible, and easy-to-use with nearly anytime and anywhere access;

- Global geographical coverage
- Several messaging methods available (SMS, WAP, Voice and web)
- Compatible with a high degree of security
- Simple to install and deploy

Most importantly, Nokia One works with what your employees have today – a mobile phone and existing desktop applications.

Look up contacts using WAP with Nokia One Mobile Connectivity Service

Using the phone book you can look up contacts by entering either names, parts of names, phone numbers, units or a combination of the above.

When there are many matches Nokia One presents you with a list.

Behind each link is the actual contact information which may include title, business unit, location, address, e-mail address and phone numbers.

Here is a view of the contact information found for "Jim E Morris".

Along with going to the next or the previous match, links for getting a business card, placing a call or composing an e-mail are displayed.
